

The Mission of the Guild

The DVWG was established by and for writers in the San Jacinto Valley and neighboring cities and regions.

Its purpose is to provide a central gathering place where writers can inspire, encourage, educate, inform, and network with each other.

A Community of Writers

Have you wanted to find like-minded creative writers in your local area?

That's Why We Formed the Guild

Writers often spend days, years, and lifetimes in the solitary pursuit of creative writing. Yet it's important to step away from the keyboard from time to time and refresh oneself with the inspiration and motivation that can only be found in the company of other writers.

The difference between the almost right word and the right word is...the difference between the lightning bug and the lightning. –Mark Twain

Benefits of Membership

For a nominal annual membership fee, members are entitled to

- Submit their work for consideration at the Guild's online literary magazine, Straitjackets.org.
- Have their books featured on our website, DVWritersGuild.org/memberbooks
- Support and publicity for member events such as book signings and book fairs
- 10% discount on all new books at Cameron Books, Hemet
- The satisfaction of knowing you are helping to support the creative writing community in the San Jacinto Valley.

Monthly Meetings

The Guild meets on the fourth Saturday of each month, January – October, from 9:30 – 11:30, at the Hemet Public Library, 300 E. Latham, Hemet, CA 92543. Admission is free.
